

Veterinary profession survey - results

95% of vets have a positive opinion of Cats Protection

> If you would like to work with us, find out more here.

69% of respondents would be most interested in hearing about 'Cat behaviour' from Cats Protection

> You wanted improved communication, including face-to-face meetings and more information – we bring to you an annual Cats Protection cat conference dedicated to cat health and welfare.

Have you seen The Behaviour Guide?

74% of respondents felt that clients/ members of the public would find help and advice on 'Cat behaviour' useful

> Our website has a dedicated cat behaviour hub. Find out more here.

41% of vets thought a 'Lack of understanding of a cat's needs' was a top issue facing cats in the UK

> Check out our resources aimed at clients: leaflets, our online course; Understanding Cats' Needs, YouTube videos and FaceBook posts

Results based on:

- 595 respondents
- Responses from across all regions of UK
- 44% vets, 36.5% vet nurses, 19.5% other (includes receptionists, practice managers)

